

House Resolution No. 4417

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take great pride in recognizing a group of young citizens who have excelled through hard work in the Future Farmers of America program; and

Whereas, the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America program distinguished itself by winning the National Forestry Title during the 77th annual FFA National Convention held October 27-30, 2004, in Louisville, Kentucky; and

Whereas, the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America team consists of Cole Wyatt, who enjoyed recognition by placing first on his seventeenth birthday; Nathan Storts, who placed third; Casey Williams, who placed fourth; and Adam Johnson, who placed ninth; and

Whereas, these outstanding young individuals could not have attained such a high level of success without the exemplary leadership of the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America advisor John Wyatt; and

Whereas, the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America is only the second FFA team in Missouri history to be national champions in forestry; and

Whereas, the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America qualified for the national competition by winning regional and state competitions; and

Whereas, forestry is only one of fourteen areas of competition at the Future Farmers of America convention; and

Whereas, the overall mission of the Future Farmers of America program is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America as it proudly celebrates this well-deserved national recognition; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for the Forsyth High School Future Farmers of America.
